ARTICLES OF MEMBERSHIP.

1st. All who agree to carry out the object contemplated by this Club are eligible to membership.

2d. The object of the Club is to promote the social and moral welfare of men.

OFFICERS OF THE CLUB

SHALL CONSIST OF

A PRESIDENT.

The President ex officio of the Guild.

A VICE-PRESIDENT.

The Vice-President ex officio of the Guild.

A SECRETARY.

AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,

CONSISTING OF TEN MEMBERS, FROM WHICH COMMITTEES
SHALL BE CHOSEN,—A COMMITTEE ON ADMIS-SION, AND A HOUSE COMMITTEE.

These shall serve until successors have been elected.

BY-LAWS.

The PRESIDENT, or in his absence, the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings, and in the absence of both of these officers, they shall appoint a presiding officer pro tempore.

The SECRETARY shall keep a roll of membership, and a complete record of all the proceedings of the Club, and of other advisable records; having charge of all correspondence.

The Records, etc., shall be at the call of the Executive Committee.

The PRESIDENT, or in his absence, the Vice-President, shall be the Chairman ex officio of the Executive Committee.

The general affairs of the Club shall be managed by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall at all times be subject to the instructions of the Presiding Officer.

It shall have a general superintendence over the internal affairs of the Club, in enforcing the preservation of order and obedience to all the rules of the Club. In no wise shall it have the power to make the Club liable for debts. It shall appoint special committees

The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall consist of the Executive Committee of the Guild, and of such others (not exceeding ten) as the Club may elect, subject to the approval of the President or Vice-President. The Executive Committee shall be chosen annually, and may fill its own vacancies.

The Executive Committee shall meet once a month for the transaction of business, and six members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

The COMMITTEE ON ADMISSION shall consist of four members; they shall be wholly under the direction of the Executive Committee.

The Committee on Admission shall make careful inquiry concerning each person proposed for membership, and shall recommend only those to the Executive Committee for membership who will be benefitted by the Club, and likely to comply with the regulations and rules of the Club.

Three negative votes of the Executive Committee shall prevent any admission to the Club.

Members shall be elected at the call of the Executive Committee.

No persons under eighteen shall be elected as members.

All resignations must be made in writing to the Executive Committee.

The House Committee to consist of four members. They shall have charge of the Club house and contents, and shall instruct the Superintendent as to his duties.

The regular meeting of the Club shall take place once in three months on such a date as the Executive Committee may appoint.

If the conduct of any member shall appear to the Executive Committee to be disorderly, and in violation of the rules of the Club, they may have the power to expel him.

The annual dues shall be one dollar, payable at the call of the Secretary, who shall give a receipt in full for the year, which receipt shall serve as a card of admission—not transferable.

Any member who shall fail to pay his annual assessment (dues) within a month from the time it is called for, shall in virtue of the same, forfeit his membership.

The annual dues will be held by the Executive Committee as a reserve fund, to be expended in repairs on the property of the Club, and in any way that the Executive Committee may see fit to use it, provided all benefits therefrom accrue to the Club.

The Club may at all regular meetings elect honorary members, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

The honorary members shall have all the privileges of the Club, except voting at meetings and being eligible for office.

No person shall be admitted to the Club house without the consent of the Committee on Admission being first obtained. The person inviting strangers must be responsible for their conduct.

The same person may not be admitted oftener than once in thirty days.

No person shall take from the Club house a newspaper, pamphlet, book or other article, the property of the Club, nor mutilate, deface or destroy the same.

A By law of the Club may be amended, or a new By-law made, at any regular meeting of the Club, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall have the power to make other regulations not inconsistent with these By-laws, as may be deemed necessary for the protection of the property of the Club, the management of the Club house, and the preservation of good order.

HOUSE RULES.

The Club house will be open daily for members, from 5 P. M. to 11 P. M. Before 5 P. M. and after 11 P. M., admittance cannot be claimed by any one.

No member shall be admitted to the house except he be in a sober condition.
